- Dorian's Alchemist was named Renault. Richard paid a guy named Elgar to track him down.
- Aura (probably) has two of the anti-magic orbs, Castor is checking his character sheet. The third orb may be imaginary → the druid hole
- Zoe has the other 2 Divination Robes from the Temple of Lucien (the abandoned, anti-magic god one) (?)
 - ↳ There is some contention as to the total number of robes. Castor says more than 3, three are accounted for on character sheets.
 - 13 total robes from the Druid Hole where the Mulberry used black aphids to attack us, Thilden found his blue orb, and Richard drank the magical water that is seriously bad for Pefifers
 - Zoe has the purple choker and assoc earrings from the Druid Hole. They allow the wearer to present as an idealized version of themselves.
 - Aura has a choker from Barton that keeps you conscious. The party does not know what it does.
 - Richard
 - Zoe and Richard each have one half of a pair of rings that allow them to communicate.
